Ashley Meyers VP, Events

A certified PMP with a MSc Degree in protein engineering, Ashley has over 10 years of experience in biopharmaceutical development, including research and development of recombinant proteins and production of these products for pre-clinical studies. She also has nearly 10 years of experience as a project manager for government-funded contracts. Ashley has been leading medical countermeasure research and development programs since 2012 and has collectively secured over $2.5 million towards advancing these programs.

Ashley has volunteered with PMI-CTT since 2017; first as an Event Manager and currently as VP, Events. Together with the events team, she delivers evening and weekend events to support the chapter's professional development activities.

When she can find a spare moment, Ashley enjoys gardening, reading fiction, four-season cottaging, and spending time with friends and family.

While exploring new business opportunities in Germany and with the EU, Ashley also had the opportunity to explore the beautiful city of Frankfurt. This included seeing such sites as Eiserner Steg (Frankfurt's "love lock" bridge) and Römer Square (home of Frankfurt's city hall).
